Introduction to the Chey Institute for Advanced Studies

The Chey Institute for Advanced Studies (hereinafter Chey Institute or CHEY) is a non-partisan institute launched in commemoration of the 20th anniversary of the passing of former SK Chairman Chey Jong-hyun, the founder of the Korea Foundation for Advanced Studies. The Chey Institute for Advanced Studies seeks to identify geopolitical risks that threaten regional and global stability and shape strategies to mitigate these risks, explore the challenges and opportunities posed by scientific innovation on the entire spectrum of our society, and investigate the impact of scientific and technological innovation on geopolitical and geoeconomic dynamics.

Entering the new millennium, the Chey Institute launched international academic programs such as the International Scholar Exchange Fellowship (ISEF) and Asia Research Centers. The International Scholar Exchange Fellowship program has supported more than 980 foreign scholars to conduct research in Korea for six months or one year, in collaboration with professors and researchers at Korean universities and academic institutions. 14 Asia Research Centers (ARC) in partnership with major universities have been established in 7 countries to promote active exchanges among Asian scholars.

The Chey Institute will continuously partner with leading academic institutions, research organizations, and think tanks around the world to establish a global network of top thinkers and groups working to solve the challenges of this century.

The Chey Institute supports the following international academic exchange programs.

1. INTERNATIONAL SCHOLAR EXCHANGE FELLOWSHIP (ISEF) PROGRAM

The Chey Institute invites Asian scholars to Korea every year for six months or one year to conduct research projects in collaboration with professors and researchers at leading universities and academic institutions in Korea. This program is designed not only to support the research of individual scholars, but also to enhance academic mutual understanding, and promote cooperation and development in Asia.

2. ASIA RESEARCH CENTERS (ARC)

The Chey Institute supports 14 Asia Research Centers (ARC) established in 7 countries, namely China, Mongolia, Thailand,

Trans-Pacific Dialogue

Beijing Forum

Shanghai Forum

Scientific Innovation Series

Tokyo Forum

Nanjing Forum

Vietnam, Cambodia, Myanmar, and Laos. ARCs provide support for research projects, academic conferences, and research publications.

3. INTERNATIONAL ACADEMIC FORUMS

Under the guiding principle that universities should play a central role in the “Rise of Asia,” the Chey Institute collaborates with major universities in Asia, including China, to cohost a wide range of international academic forums. The Chey Institute has expanded its support for these forums, both in terms of themes and partner countries. The Beijing Forum, Shanghai Forum, Tokyo Forum, Tianjin Forum, Nanjing Forum, Shandong Forum, Global Forum of the Rule of Law, Bangkok Forum and Hanoi Forum are all examples of this growing support.

After pandemic, significant forums such as Beijing Forum, Shanghai Forum, Tianjin Forum, and Nanjing Forum marked a return to in-person gatherings, providing a valuable platform for the exchange of ideas and discussions. Renowned political figures, distinguished scholars, and influential business leaders actively participated in these forums. Beijing Forum marked its 20th anniversary celebration with a theme centered on “The Harmony of Civilizations and Prosperity for All-Inheritance and Mutual Learning.” While the Shanghai Forum focused on “Towards a More Inclusive Globalization Asia’s New Responsibilities.” Moreover, looking ahead, the Tokyo Forum is scheduled to be held offline in November at Tokyo University under the theme of “Cultivating Humanity and Social Divisions and Digital Transformation.”

4. ROK-US-CHINA TRILATERAL CONFERENCE

The ROK-US-China Trilateral Conference is a platform that brings together renowned scholars to conduct frank dialogue to seek ways to promote progressive relationships between the three countries. Since 2014, the Trilateral Conference has been held in Seoul, Brookings Institution in Washington and the School of International Studies at Peking University.

5. SCIENTIFIC INNOVATION SERIES

The Chey Institute’s Scientific Innovation Series aims to understand the past, present, and future of key science and technology areas and assess the impact of scientific innovation on society. Since 2019, the Chey Institute hosted 3 conferences and 21 special lectures, which disseminated insights to the scientific community as well as the general public. More than 100 world-leading scholars participated in the series. The topics covered include neuroscience, biotechnology, quantum science, astrophysics, space technology, advanced semiconductors and batteries, cybersecurity, and renewable energy. Distinguished lectures and discussions from the Scientific Innovation Series have been published and distributed to the intellectual communities and general public.

6. CHEY ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON SCIENCE AND TECHNOLOGY

The CHEY Advisory Committee on Science and Technology is dedicated to identifying challenges and impacts of advanced science and technology where the ultimate goal is to successfully prepare for rapidly evolving future. In order to achieve its goal, the advisory committee, comprised of scholars of well-known international institutions, has actively pursued solutions through interdisciplinary forums and shared academic results with intellectual leaders in our society. The unique role of the advisory committee is to establish a global cutting-edge science and technology network formed by international knowledge exchange.

7. TRANS-PACIFIC DIALOGUE

On December 5-7, 2022, the Chey Institute for Advanced Studies held the 2nd Trans-Pacific Dialogue (TPD). The Trans-Pacific Dialogue aims to address the most pressing global challenges or crises with the world’s most influential opinion leaders, scholars, and incumbent/former high-ranking officials from the United States, Japan, and Korea. The topics include but are not limited to the following: US-China strategic competition, the Ukraine War, the North Korean nuclear crisis, the impact of scientific innovation on geopolitical risks, the future of global supply chains and the impact of global inflation. The Chey Institute published the second annual report that compiles the speeches and session summaries from the Trans-Pacific Dialogue.

8. CHEY-CSIS JOINT PROJECTS

The Chey Institute for Advanced Studies and the Center for Strategic & International Studies (CSIS), the leading US think tank, had launched the “Joint Commission on Northeast Asia and the Korean Peninsula” to discuss and issue a report on the future of the Northeast Asian relations and the US-ROK alliance. In 2021 and 2022, the joint commission held private and public sessions on geopolitical risks in Northeast Asia and the Korean peninsula. The Chey Institute and CSIS published a joint report, “The Future of Northeast Asia and the Korea-US Alliance.” In March 2023, CHEY-CSIS held joint conference to discuss on the topic “Cooperation on Scientific Innovation, Supply Chains, and Geopolitical Risk in Northeast Asia.”

About the International Scholar

Exchange Fellowship

The International Scholar Exchange Fellowship (ISEF) program aims to enhance regional academic exchanges and cooperation by providing Asian scholars with an opportunity to live in Korea and conduct research for six months or one year. This program was established in 1999 and began supporting scholars the following year.

A total of 988 ISEF fellows have been selected over the last 24 years including Cambodia, China, India, Indonesia, Iran, Iraq, Kazakhstan, Laos, Malaysia, Mongolia, Myanmar, Pakistan, the Philippines, Russia, Thailand, Uzbekistan and Vietnam. The 2023-2024 ISEF fellows arrived in Seoul this past August. This cohort consists of 18 scholars from China, Vietnam, Mongolia, Myanmar, and Laos. They have successfully begun conducting their proposed research in collaboration with their host scholars at the major universities and research institutions in Korea.

The ISEF program provides outstanding scholars with comprehensive research expenses during their stay in Korea, which include round-trip airfare, settlement support, a monthly research stipend, a research grant, and medical insurance.

Scholars are expected to conduct research in the fields of humanities, social sciences, energy, IT, and life sciences. Scholars are given the freedom to choose their research topics within these fields.

The Chey Institute also offers Korean language classes, seminars, and educational trips to cultural sites and industrial facilities to enhance the ISEF fellows' understanding of Korea.

- 5) Certificate of Ph.D. degree
- 6) Research samples: 2 books, 2 research papers, or 1 book and 1 research paper
- 7) An English abstract of no more than 300 words must be provided for each book or research paper
- 8) Letter of research affiliation from the host institution in Korea (if available at the time of application)

7. SUBMISSION

- Applicants should submit their application directly to the Chey Institute website. You can find your status on the "Application History" page.
- * In some cases, Asia Research Centers(ARC) at an applicant's university may have a separate ISEF application process. Please check if there is a separate selection process and if so, please apply through your university ARC. For additional information, please refer to your university's affiliated ARC.

8. SELECTION PROCESS

- 1) Preliminary screening:

Preliminary screening by a panel of scholars from the applicant's field of expertise.

2) Comprehensive screening:

Final decision through comprehensive screening by the Chey Institute for Advanced Studies Steering Committee. Interviews may be arranged if necessary.

9. DEADLINE

- February 23, 2024

- * All original documents must reach the Chey Institute by the deadline.

- * Announcement of results: March 29, 2024

10. FINANCIAL SUPPORT

- Research grant

- Monthly research stipend of 3,500,000 KRW (approximately 2,600 USD)

- One-time grant of 1,000,000 KRW will be provided after applicant submits final research paper by the end of the fellowship

- * If fellows do not enter Korea within one month of the recommended date of entry set by the Chey Institute, the fellowship will become invalid.

- Publication incentives

- 2,000~5,000 USD (for an article published in journals indexed in SSCI, AHCI, and SCI)

- 1,000 USD (for an article published in journals indexed in the National Research Foundation of Korea)

- * Publication incentives are provided for articles published within 2 years of the date of the fellow's return to his/her country. The article must indicate that the research was funded by the Chey Institute's ISEF program. The amount of incentives may vary upon careful evaluation of the journal's influence and the writer's level of contribution.

- Settlement support

- One-time payment of 1,000,000 KRW

- Round-trip airfare

- Economy class round-trip airfare between Seoul and the nearest airport from the fellow's residence

- Medical insurance

- National health insurance

- Accident insurance

- * Research expenses for the International Scholar Exchange Fellowship Program are provided directly to the fellows, and not to home institutions or host institutions

11. RESEARCH SUPPORT

- Korean language classes

The Chey Institute holds regular Korean classes for the fellows during their stay. Classes are offered from September to July of the following year. In August, fellows are expected to deliver presentations in Korean.

- Cultural tours

Cultural tours are provided once during the year. Fellows will visit major Korean cities and cultural areas to learn about Korean history and traditions.

- Visits to industrial sites

Visits to prominent industrial sites and research centers will provide fellows with an opportunity to learn about Korea's industrial development.

12. RESEARCH PRESENTATION

- Interim progress reports

Fellows are required to submit progress reports on their proposed research project on November 15, 2024, and February 15 and May 15, 2025.

- Research proposals should include the following:
  - Statement purpose: Be specific about your academic interest within your field.
  - Background: Place your research project in an academic context by referencing major works by other scholars in this field. A bibliography may be attached in order to provide the background of your proposed project. Also, describe how your proposed research plan is related to your previous study/research and fits your future academic goals.
  - Objectives: Write a clear and detailed description of your proposed research objectives.
  - Scope, design, and methodology: Describe the scope, design, and methodology of your proposed research project.
  - Schedule: Explain how your project can be completed within the duration of this fellowship.
  - Significance: Explain the significance of your proposed project for your academic field, your own professional development, and your home country.
  - Dissemination: Describe your plans for disseminating your research findings in your home country and elsewhere.
  - Publications: Include a complete list of your publications, translated into English. You should use standard citation and bibliographical format.

3. SUBMIT SUPPLEMENTARY DOCUMENTS

- After completing the online application form, you must submit 2 recommendation letters, 2 research samples, a certificate of doctoral degree, a certificate of employment, and a letter from the host institution (if applicable) on the “Submission of Documents” page.

1) Certificate of Doctoral Degree

- Applicants must upload a certificate of doctoral degree.
- Graduates of Chinese universities must also upload a certificate of graduation.

2) Certificate of Employment

- Issued within 2 months from the date of submission

3) Recommendation Letters

- Applicants must submit 2 recommendation letters. Applicants can send recommendation letter requests and formats to recommenders through the “Submission of Documents” page. A copy of your statement of proposed activity should be given to each recommender before this form is sent.
- At least one recommendation should come from a source not affiliated with your institution.
- Recommenders should be in a position to comment on your abilities and qualifications to carry out the stated research project in Korea. Also, the recommender should state the value of your research in relation to your teaching responsibilities in your nationality.

4) Research Sample

- 2 research samples that best represent your work (e.g., books or research papers) must be submitted. Applicants may either submit 2 books, 2 research papers, or 1 book and 1 research paper.

- Research paper submission must include an abstract of fewer than 300 words and the full text of the research paper.
- Book submission must include an abstract of fewer than 300 words and an original copy must be sent to the Chey Institute by mail.

4. HOST INSTITUTION IN KOREA

- If available, please attach a letter of research affiliation from your host institution in Korea to your application. You may download the form from the Chey Institute homepage. (Exchange Programs - ISEF - ISEF Archive - Download - Letter of Research Affiliation)
- Upon selection as an ISEF fellow, you must contact the appropriate Korean institutions and scholars immediately to arrange your research affiliation. You should either upload it on the application page or send the Chey Institute a letter of research affiliation as soon as arrangements are made.
- Fellows should find their own host scholars as they best understand their field of study and research proposals. It is also best for fellows and host scholars to contact each other directly for improved cooperation and exchange during the research period. You are also advised to inquire whether the institution's accommodations, such as dormitories or apartments, are available for use. You must discuss each other's role and involvement thoroughly before arriving in Korea.

5. CONFIRM SUBMISSION OF APPLICATION

- After submitting your application form, you may check the application status from the Application History.
- ISEF fellows will be announced on March 31, 2022. You can also check the Application History for results.

6. IMPORTANT NOTICE

- 1) All documents must reach the Chey Institute by the application deadline in order to be considered for the following academic year, which begins in September.
- 2) All communications, including questions about your application, should be directed to the ARC in the applicant's respective institution or to the Chey Institute.
- 3) If an application form is not completely filled out and/or is not accompanied by proper documents, the application may be rejected without notice.
- 4) Submitted documents will not be returned to the applicants.
- 5) Accepted ISEF fellows may have their acceptance rescinded if he/she is found to have provided incorrect information.
